Dear Electro-Technical Sector Professional

Re: SABS Electro-Technical Sector Stakeholder Engagement and Consultation Workshop – 30 August 2018

SABS is hosting a one-day stakeholder engagement and consultation workshop in association with EE Publishers on Thursday 30 August 2018.

The Workshop will take place at St. George's Hotel and Conference Centre, and will be followed by a tour of the SABS NETFA test facilities in Olifantsfontein. Bus transport will be provided to and from SABS NETFA.

The aim of the workshop is to establish a platform for collaboration between the SABS and the electro-technical sector with specific focus on building capacity for testing to meet the needs of the electro-technical industry.

Internationally renowned engineer and researcher, Dr. Andrew Eriksson, former director of the CSIR National Electrical Engineering Research Institute, NEERI, who was involved in the establishment of the high-voltage test facilities at NETFA in the 1980s, and is now based in Switzerland, will make the opening keynote presentation.

This letter is to invite you to attend the Workshop and to diarise and reserve the date of 30 August 2018.
